Letter from the Head of School

*"Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less travelled by,
And that has made all the difference"*
-Robert Frost, (The Road Not Taken)

We often speak about the value of participating in areas that are largely outside of our comfort zone, and about the benefits associated with reaching beyond what is known. The courageous ones are those that forge ahead, despite the trepidations one might feel in uncharted territory. I am so proud of the students of the Class of 2014. Each one of you has bravely forged ahead to experience new and different adventures, whether it has been as a public speaker, an artist, a debater, a community service traveller to Nicaragua, a coordinator for Study events, an exchange student or a presenter of an innovative science or math project. You, Class of 2014, have opted for that "road less travelled", and succeeded well. You are inspiring young women, exhibiting great leadership.

Having spent three years as your Head of School, I am delighted to have had the opportunity to help you grow, and to evolve with you. It is clear to me that you will achieve much success, both personally and globally, and I will be proud to say that I knew you when you were a Study girl.

As Study "Old Girls", I hope that you will continue to be a part of the Study family, and that you will continue to inspire all of us with your passion for learning.

My fondest wishes for your continued success as you navigate through your next "roads".

Mrs. Nancy Lewis Sweer

Letter from the Deputy Head of School

Bigger, Better, Together we are Stronger is this year's Student Council theme. What an important and valuable message to all of us. A wonderful strength of The Study is our ability to work together to do great things, whether it is to prepare a concert together or organize the annual bazaar, together we are very strong. Developing strong relationships with one another and always striving to do our best are important goals to have now and in the future.

On another note, I wish our graduating class all the best as they continue their educational journeys in a variety of post-secondary institutions. It is so hard to believe that the little girls who started in kindergarten the year I started at The Study, are already moving on to exciting new educational experiences. I know that you will embrace all the opportunities in the future as wonderfully as you have embraced them here at The Study.

To the graduates of 2014: "To accomplish great things, we must not only act but also dream, not only dream, but also believe." (Anatole France)

Ms. Antonia Zannis

Letter from the Senior School Director

Each year is special in the life of a school, and the yearbook is one of the best ways to hold on to the memories and images of your happy and successful times spent at The Study. Founder's Day, Bazaar, Celebration of the Arts, Athletics, House Days, Mathletes, Community Service, Nicaragua Service Trip, Leadership Conference, Science and Math Fair, Sports Day...just a few of the many activities that are captured within the covers of the yearbook. There is a place for every Study Girl to shine in the school, and your enthusiasm, participation and spirit are what makes every day special and every year memorable.

To our graduates, as you move on to the next exciting chapter, we will remember all of the joy you brought to the school during your time here, your "home on the hill". You have become strong young women whose skills and character will allow you to meet the challenges of the future with spirit and certainty.

Enjoy this wonderful production. I am, as always, humbled by the skills of our teachers and the enthusiasm of our students.

Ms. Patricia Briand

Letter from the Elementary School Director

Dear Elementary School students,

This year has been rich in so many ways: acquired knowledge, meeting new students, enriching class trips and excursions, etc. I got to know you better because I worked with you and went on excursions with you. It makes me appreciate you even more. You all impress me with your self-confidence and the way you have to stand in front of a group and express yourself. You should be proud of all your accomplishments. I have the privilege of following your progress. I learned a lot.

Votre implication dans la vie de l'école et votre désir d'aider les autres sont motivants. Votre facilité à partager vos idées à travers divers projets a démontré votre fierté de partager vos connaissances.

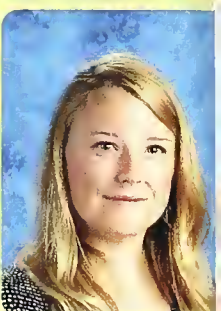

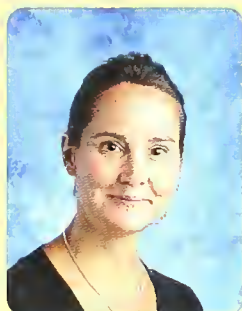

Conservez votre belle curiosité intellectuelle. Vous m'avez fait passer par toute une gamme d'émotions: du rire au pleurs, pleurs devant la chorale qui chante pour Céline Dion S'il suffisait qu'on s'aime. Vous m'avez certainement fait évoluer en faisant partager vos joies et vos peines, petites et grandes. Je vous en remercie. To our returning students, I wish you the best restful summer ever. To the girls who are leaving us this year, I wish you the best of luck in all your future endeavors. I hope you will come back to visit.

Head Girl: Hannah Sousa-Fronenberg

Being part of Student Council has been an experience of a lifetime and I don't think any amount of words could do it justice let alone 130. Being Head Girl this past year was one of the most fulfilling opportunities I have ever had and this has been a truly unforgettable year. Our goal was to unite the school, and make connections with all students and teachers and we worked hard to make that happen. It was my personal goal to get to know The Study's individuals and I can honestly say that I am extremely sad to be leaving all of the amazing women, "women-to-be", and also the few men in this school. I must say thank you, firstly, to all six of my girls, I could not have asked for a better team to work with this year. Secondly, thank you to Ms. Lewis for being such an amazing supporter of all our ideas (even if you knew it wasn't a good one). To Megan, I see so much potential in you and I have so much confidence that you will be a great leader next year. Good luck to next year's Student Council!

Sub-Head Girl: Madison Meehan

You never realize how much a young Study girl looks up to you until you see her face light up when she sees the Student Council walking by. Being this year's Sub-Head Girl was not only an honour, but also a great way to finish my 12 years at The Study. Even though this year flew by, I can honestly say it was definitely the most memorable. The six other girls on the Student Council were a pleasure to work with and made this year a success. I'm going to miss our loud and hilarious Monday lunch meetings next year! I would like to thank Ms. Lewis and Mme. Bousser for helping us get through the year, which was full of event planning and fund raising. Finally, to Chloe Shahinian, our new Sub-Head Girl, even though you weren't elected "Shh" Girl, you can make a difference in the school. If you ever get the opportunity to address the assembly, please try and give all the kindergarten girls the chance to "shh" like I did...make it a tradition as 12 years is far too long to wait. Good luck Chloe, I know you'll be a great Sub-Head Girl!

It was in grade 3 when I first wanted to be Sports Captain. I would watch Jaqueline go up to the front during every assembly and make the sports announcements. She was very monotone, and so was I (still am). Both of us loved sports and the job didn't seem too extreme and out there, so I thought: "I want to be just like her". The older I got, the more sports I participated in and the more I wanted to be the student head of all the athletic teams and events. Once elected, I learned that it was hard work, but I had so much fun doing it. I faced my fear of public speaking by standing up front every Monday morning. I organized Ski Day and the Banquet, two huge events that took lots of time and effort. However I was also able to become friends with so many girls in the high school through sports. Thank you Mrs. Traylen for all your help. Catherine, I know you'll do an amazing job next year! Student council, ever since first assembly, I knew the year would be amazing. Our Monday lunch meetings and all of our dance practices couldn't have been more fun. I'll miss you Chanti!

Treasurer: Chloe Keleny

Jess, Julia, Isabel, Hannah, Maddie and Emily, I couldn't have wished for a better group of girls to work with throughout this last year. You helped make my experience on student council so memorable, everyone one of you is so hard working and dedicated to making this school year the best one yet. Even if it's the night before or the morning of (thank goodness for Facebook) we always manage to get things done. This year has truly been an unforgettable one and I owe a big part of that to student council. I'm going to miss you guys so much, shout out to Chanti (Ms Lewis) for putting up with us, supporting us and for keeping us on track! To the '14-15 student council members, I hope you guys have as great an experience as I did - make every moment next year memorable at the S-Club, it goes by so quickly. And one piece of advice for you all is to not be afraid to put yourselves out there, give everything you do your all! And finally, student council 2013-2014 I'm so proud of us and I love you guys so much. Turn down for nothing, your Treasurer, Chloe Keleny

Being on Student Council has been an eye opening experience for me. The accumulation of hours spent this year - after school, on weekends, during class time - planning and organizing and leading activities has to be the greatest I've ever spent at school. Ever. Through the ups and downs, the challenges and the successes, my wonderful team has kept me going. We've gathered so much experience this year and I'm so proud of all of the moments and memories (good and bad) that we've created. Together (Hannah, Chloe, Julia, Emily, and Isabel), we've built an amazing school year. We've all supported and loved each other through thick and thin. I'm so honored to have shared this incredible experience with all of you. Thank you Ms Lewis and Mme. Bousser, it has been a pleasure working with you. Student Council has been a learning process I'll always cherish. Camy, I know you're going to make a great Secretary and although I'm sad that I'll be leaving my position behind, I know it's in good hands. To next year's Student Council, I wish you all the best of luck!

Entertainment Prefect Isabel Kathy King

I can't believe how fast the year has gone, I still feel like I just got elected onto the Student Council with the 6 other girls, all of us so enthusiastic and excited to make the upcoming year the best one yet. Student Council was one of the greatest and most memorable experiences I have had at The Study. I was lucky to have been able to work with the 6 other fantastic, brilliant girls on the Student Council as well as an amazing student life coordinator, Ms. Lewis (Chanti). There are way too many memories of awkward dances (the carnival one will never be forgotten), video bloopers, stressful planning sessions and last minute skits to describe, but all of it was worth it. Yes, at times the work was a bit stressful, but it was so satisfactory to see the end product. Thank you girls and Chanti for giving me a great student council experience! I'm going to miss you all! To next year's council, have fun and good luck!

This past year has gone by faster than I thought it ever would. Being on the Student Council and being Elementary School Prefect this past year has been an amazing and one of the most rewarding experiences. Thank you to the Elementary school teachers for their support in my initiatives and their help throughout the year. Thank you to Ms. Lewis (aka Chanti) for being an amazing advisor and putting up with our crazy ideas. Thank you to Hannah, Maddie, Julia, Jess, Chloe and Isabel: an amazing group of girls, working with all of you has been amazing! Finally, thank you to all The Study girls who have made this year an unforgettable one. I'm going to miss the hugs the little kids give me on a daily basis and the new friends I have made in the Elementary school.

To Fred, good luck! Cherish every moment of the year and have fun!

Love,
Emily

Student Council

Being this year Grad Head and working with the committee has been a huge honour. I had so much fun working with Noella, Noelle, Ja'neil and Sidney planning our grad. I would like to thank Ms. Lewis and Ms. Pannell for all their hard work and for putting up with our shenanigans. We would have never found our grad dates without the help of Ms. Lewis harassing us for our date's names. I couldn't have asked for a better committee to help me through those stressful times. Without you guys, our final product would not have been the same.

Tuck Head: Clara Tuckey

It has been a pleasure sharing my love of sugar with the school. This year was the MOST successful year Tuck has ever experienced. This success would not have been possible without the amazing help of my grade. It was a group effort organizing the Tuck cabinet, serving our customers and resisting not to eat all the supplies. From visiting what became my second home, Costco, to the struggles of carrying in boxes of goodies through the locker room door, I can firmly say that this year has been a memorable one. I wish the best of luck to next year's Tuck Head; I can assure you of one thing, it is a sweet position. Love always, Clara

Bazaar Co-Chairs: Julia Cohen and Irene Kaloyannis

The Bazaar has always been a magical time at the Study. It is a time when the entire community comes together, not just the students from Kindergarten to Grade 11, but the parents and the staff too. It is a time when the school goes through a transformation that can only be described as magical. However, this year, it was even more special for us because we were the ones that made it happen. We would like to thank Mme. Briand and Ms. Lewis for helping us get through it all, as well as all the students, staff and parents who attended the event and made it amazing. The Bazaar is an amazing Study tradition and we hope it will continue to be one in the future.
Love,
Julia Cohen and Irene Kaloyannis

This year, I had the wonderful opportunity of being Alumni Prefect. I think it is so important for the graduating class to keep correspondence as the years go on, and I am truly honoured to be the one in charge of making sure it happens! Throughout this year, I was so happy to learn all about SOGA and about different ways of staying in touch. I also learned many interesting facts about The Study that I was previously unaware of. Thank you so much to Ms. Edwards for guiding me all year long and thank you to the members of the SOGA Executive for allowing me take an active role in your meetings, you really taught me that the memories made at this school are everlasting. To the graduating class: wherever we are and whatever we do, we will always be connected by this place we once called our home.

Art Committee Head, Julia Liogas

Being Art Captain this year has been an amazing experience. I've only been at the school for 2 years, so getting the opportunity to have a leadership position in the school was exciting. I really enjoyed having this responsibility and learning from it. I've always been nervous when speaking in front of people and making speeches was never my forte, but I got used to making announcements. Emceeding the celebration of the Arts concert took me way out of my comfort zone but I am really glad that I did it, because I have become comfortable speaking in front of an audience. I know this position has given me a lot of experience that I wouldn't have gotten without it. Thanks to Ms. Kemeny, Ms. Van Frank, Ms. Metwalli and Mr. Mayes for guiding and supporting me. I'm really thankful I had this experience!!

Over the last year, I have had the honour of being the Community Service and Global Initiatives Representative. This means that I was head of community service and global initiatives, including our Nicaragua project and the Free the Children committee. I have had the honour of working alongside Ms. Lewis and Ms. Liogas. Ms. Liogas and I have worked on many projects such as We Day, Penny Drive, movie night and the Toonie race. Ms. Lewis and I have worked together to get the students involved with new volunteering opportunities, while teaching them what community service is all about. This year, we introduced the new community service program for students in Grade 9 and below. Being this year's Community Service and Global Initiatives Representative, has given me a great opportunity to practice my leadership skills. I wish next year's Community Service and Global Initiatives Representative luck! Take advantage of the year because the year goes by fast.

Girls for the Cure, Ja'Neil Christine Mitchell and Lilian Sharmah

Being the co-heads for Girls for the Cure was a wonderful and exciting experience. We learned how to work in a team efficiently and discovered that organizing an event is a huge responsibility. It was rewarding to see the final result of all our hard work. Seeing the big smiles on the young girls' faces was priceless, while they announced the total results. It was inspiring to see so many girls reunite for one cause. Thank you Ms. Lewis for all your hard work! GFC Committee 2014, you have a lot on your plate but I promise it is an extremely rewarding experience!

Good luck!!

- Lilian, Ja'neil, Noëlla, and Zoe

Standing Committees

Kappa Rho

Being head of Kappa Rho this year has been a blast. I have always known that Kappa Rho is the best house, but I never really knew why. This year, I found out exactly why: every member of Kappa Rho has so much spirit and love for their house that it shows through in everything they do and makes them stand out. Whether they are inventing new cheers or winning (and sometimes losing) graciously, I know that every Kappa Rhoian is giving 110% of their energy to every house activity, and that makes them very special. I owe a big thank you to Mrs. Traylen and the other members of the Force for making house meetings so lively and for making planning the other house activities fun. I hope everyone else had as much fun as I did. GO KAPPA RHO!

- Julia Cohen (House Head)

Delta Beta

DELTA BETA!!!!!!! I know I've only been in your house for two years but I feel like a true Delta Betian! I love my house so much! All you girls have been amazing and have made being house head so much fun!!! I love how spirited you always are and your enthusiasm while doing cheers is incomparable! Being house head, I've had the opportunity to organize house days, events, and SPORTS DAY! To be a house official I've had to be responsible for everyone in my house, be organized and very animated. I've enjoyed every minute! I love leading cheers and getting everyone excited. Thanks to my Sub-Head and Sports captain for being an amazing help! Thanks to Ms. Traylen for guiding us in meetings and making sure we got everything done on time!!! And lastly I'd like to thank every single member of my amazing house (the best house ever!!) for being awesome!!!!

Much Love,

Julie Leduc (House Head)

Mu Gamma

Dear Mu Gamma,

It has been an amazing year with you guys! We are so honoured and proud to have been able to represent you this academic year. With your amazing enthusiasm and spirit you have made Sidney's and my last year at The Study one to remember. We will never forget seeing all your beautiful smiling faces every house day, proudly wearing your blue shirts, ready to show off what Mu Gamma house is made of! Good luck to next year's House Head, Sub Head and Sports Captain!

We love you so much Mu Gamma!
Lilian, Sidney and Camille

Beta Lambda

Dear Beta Lambda members,

Being the house officials of Beta Lambda this year has been great! Your spirit has been something all the other houses admire and envy. House life has been a huge part of our study experience and we are very honoured to have been able to lead this great group of girls and hopefully create memories that will last a lifetime. It has been truly an honour to share the past year with you girls as your house officials. Beta Lambda is obviously the best house. We have a lot of pride for our house and we are definitely the most spirited. It's been a great year!

Love you all,
Noella, Victoria and Chloe

Grade 5

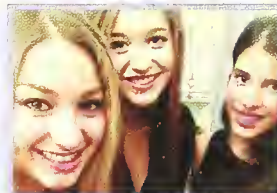

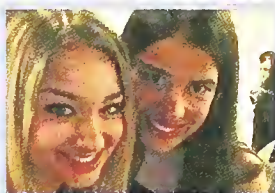

The past 12 years at The Study have been a time to remember. I'd first like to thank all the teachers I've come across, for imparting their knowledge on to me. To my family for always supporting me, and last but not least, all of my friends I've made along the way. To my fellow lifers, thank you for making the last 12 years of life as memorable as it was. E.N., our daily text will be something I'll never forget. S.D., you're the craziest girl I know, calling me every night. M.M, band class just isn't the same without you. I.K., your love notes are... special. L.S.A., I don't know what I'd do without you. J.C.M. you're literally my sister. H.S.F., besties since Grade 1, you'll always be important in my life. J.M., strongest girl I know. The 5 + Lynsey, y'all are family. I Love you all and I'll miss you more than you'll ever know. <3

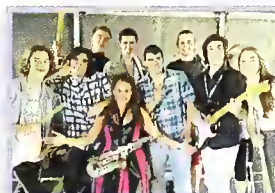

This is the end of an amazing journey, the memories we have made, the lessons we have learned and the people who we cherish will stay with us for a lifetime. I am truly grateful to all those who have made my time at The Study incredibly special. Thank you to all the faculty and staff who have opened my mind to new possibilities, my friends who have been my rock through the good and bad, and most importantly my family who have spoiled me with their love and without whom I would not have been able to overcome the challenges in my life. To the graduating class of 2014, you are truly the most remarkable women; I could not have asked for a more amazing group of girls to spend these years of my life with. I wish you all the greatest success in your future endeavors and all the happiness in the world.

I can't believe how fast nine years have passed! It seems not so long ago, I was in Grade 3 thinking I would never make it to Grade 6, let alone graduation. I would like to thank all those who've supported me on my incredible journey through The Study filled with wonderful opportunities. I now graduate feeling so amazingly blessed! Through this bumpy road of ups and downs, I thank those who've helped me find my inner reserves of strength, develop my God-given talent for music and blossom into the person I am today. For this, I thank The Study staff, graduates and friends alike, but most of all, my loving and supportive parents and family. Class of 2014, I wish you all the very best in your lives and CONGRATULATIONS, we all made it together!

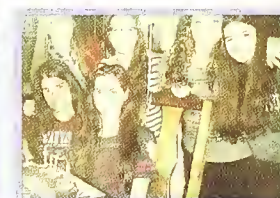

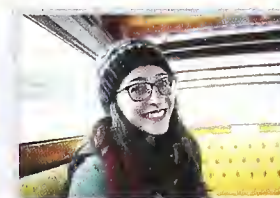

"Without music, life would be an error." ~ Friedrich Nietzsche

To my fellow graduates or rather, my sisters: this is it. This is the moment we have all been waiting for. The moment we all now wish hadn't come so soon. Even though I don't always express it, I will sincerely miss every single one of you. I will miss your animal-sounding voices in the locker room. I will miss your capacities to eat never-ending amounts of food. I will miss your wide smiles that appear on Fridays at 3:29 as the bell is about to ring but most importantly, I will miss the love you have all contributed in creating an unbreakable and unforgettable bond, here, at The Study. As my favorite artist, Drake once said: "You Only Live Once", which is why, once you leave here, I encourage you all to take risks and live life to the fullest. From now on, let's stop mourning our departure and start celebrating this new, upcoming beginning. Turnup!

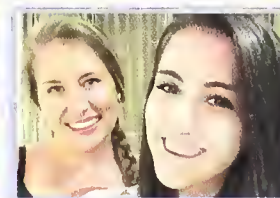

I have been at The Study for 70% of my life. I have schlepped myself up what I consider to be Westmount's very own Mt. Everest to get to class. I have sacrificed the better parts of my evenings and weekends to rehearse for plays and festivals. But I never minded, because I could never get sick of The Study. No matter how much time I spent in its poorly air-conditioned walls, I never wanted to leave, and I have the class of 2014 to thank for that. You guys are the reason that I have always looked forward to going to school. On top of that, you put up with me every day. Next year just won't be the same knowing that I won't be greeted by your smiling faces every morning. I wish you all the best of luck, I love you guys.

Wynsey En...

Over the past five years, I have made so many amazing friends and memories that I will cherish forever. I am going to miss the four, the #msfts, and I could never forget Kourtney. I would like to thank Lala for always being there to calm me down when I'm freaking out, Noonie for being the most loving person that I know, and Irene for well, being Irene. Jaden has always been there for me. We have had so many funny memories together such as the football, the bros, the Biebs, the Liams and the football team. Although we sometimes get on each other's nerves, Taylor will always get us through it. Lor and I have had so many laughs together. Whether it was Little Caesar's sugar, our poor English skills, the devil voice, the sibling's marriage, whales or the weekend up north. I will miss all of you so much next year, I don't know how I will live without my sisters.

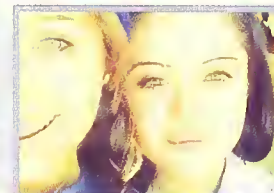

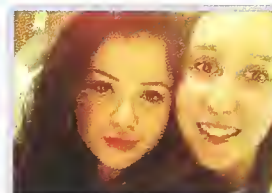

Now, this is a story all about how my life got flipped-turned upside down and I'd like to take a minute, just sit right there, I'll tell you how I became a Study girl who can't be compared. In T.M.R. born and raised on the playground was where I spent most of my days chillin' with L.S.A & I.Y.K, relaxin' all cool and playing Winx club outside of the school...ain't nobody got time for that. I love you all so much! The amount of drama that happened this year is unreal! My phone bill has skyrocketed from talking about Gorilla, Levi jeans, Squidward, Curious George and Flounder to E.N, H.S.F, and N.A.Y every night. Merci maman et papa pour toujours avoir de l'espoir en moi et d'avoir payé pour ma collection de Winnie the Pooh à deux dollars chacun! To my crew, my life is changed forever and you all take a huge place in my heart!

xoxo Sidney

P.S. Class of '14, YASSSS we made it...or nah, we will see in 10 years (I have faith)!

I will always remember my very first day at The Study. I was that typical shy and awkward little girl, but that soon changed. Everyone that I got to know truly made me into the person I am today and I will cherish each and every memory I've had here. I want to thank The Five because without all of you I would honestly be lost, Mad-son for flipping my hair when I couldn't, Lynsey for panicking and scaring me for no reason, Ja'neil for Tutti Frutti and most importantly, the Class of 2014 for reminding me how "special" our grade actually is. I love each and every one of you and I will never forget the last five years we spent together. Love, Lorena

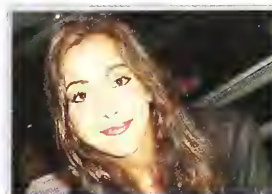

"...the world's mine oyster, which I with sword will open."- William Shakespeare

As graduation nears, I find myself thinking about all of the wonderful memories I've made at The Study. It's impossible to share almost nine years worth of experiences in such a small paragraph, but I can tell you they include many hours of learning, even more smiles and lots of laughter.

Thank you to my teachers for helping me open my mind to the world around me and thank you to my parents for giving me this opportunity and for believing in me. To the class of 2014, I can't thank you enough for all of your immeasurable energy, kindness and support. There is not another group of girls I would have wanted to share this journey with more than you.

Remember, never stop believing and always hold onto that feeling. I wish you all the love, success and happiness in the world as you embark on your new journeys.

When I look back, I can definitely see that the simplicity in Kindergarten and the stress-filled final year are different yet so similar in many ways. Difference: Kindergarten nap time that we took for granted vs. the almost inhuman difficulty of juggling school and personal life in Grade 11. Similarity: the nurturing spirit has never diminished but has only grown. And what truly brings all the years spent together is undoubtedly the fact that I couldn't been luckier to have spent all my years here with 14 amazing girls and to have made more friends than one can count on two hands. OH, SM, LW and EJ, thanks for all the crazy times in the library that were practically illegal in sound level. To my family, I couldn't be more grateful for all the support and love you've given to me. Lastly, thank you to everyone at The Study for your wisdom and timeless memories. To the Class for 14, I wish everyone great success and happiness and most importantly, we've made it!

The first day I came to The Study in the fall of 2012, I was hoping that I could quietly live through the next two years without getting involved in anything, but that was not the case since I didn't expect anyone to have the same "soft-spot" as me: EliJ, LiliW, SM and SH. Nobody told me that I would work with some of the coolest mentors and friends. Thank you IK and DC for being my first skating teachers, ER for being so nice, supportive and letting me play "Just Dance" for the very first time, OC for letting me know that I actually have a sense of humor, SM and SH for always being there for me. Not just the people I mentioned above but to all the girls of the Class of 2014: To be able to work and be in the same grade as you girls was an honour for me, I wish I could have listed all the things that made me admire each and everyone of you. Best of luck to all of you!

In elementary school, I always looked up to the girls in Grade 11 thinking one day I'll be like them, but I never thought that day would come. Looking back, I'll never forget our Study moments (over studying and quizzing each other right before a test, making weird faces to each other during class, to name just a few) and I'll never forget you girls who have helped me become the person I am today. To my two musketeers, in the future we'll still be the 3 Mediterraneans stuck in IGA for hours debating over cheeses. To Pikachu, thank you for all the cuddles (I'm not done yet). J.C, V.K, C.L, L.A and M.M thanks for always making me smile and always being there for me. I love you girls! I'm going to miss all of you and this school so much. Thank you graduating class for this amazing Study experience. Happiness, health and success to you all.

I really can't say everything I want to say in this blurb. Firstly, there isn't enough space and, secondly, they'd probably censor a lot of it out. One thing I can say is I can't believe we're here, at the end. It feels like just yesterday I was acting out Class of the Titans with Lil' Peace, jamming out to Jonas Brothers with The Calf-Slapper and discussing Jell-O Chicken in Physics Mode with E.R.C. (not to be confused with Ethics and Religious Culture). Thank you all for my swell time here, special thanks to L.A., S.E., E.R.C., M.M., N.A.Y., L.E.C, E.N. & C.L. I would also like to thank my awesomely Greek family and all the excellent teachers here. I love you, Grads of 2014. You're a neat group of gals.

"Those schoolgirl days
Of telling tales and biting nails are gone,
But in my mind,
I know they will still live on and on." – "To Sir, with Love" by Lulu

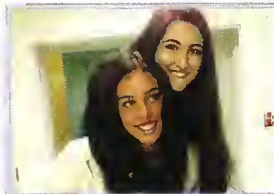

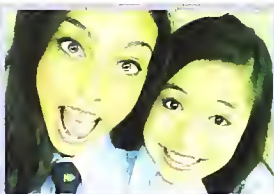

The past 5 years I've spent at The Study will be ones that I'll remember forever. Drama, mood swings, and seeing my best friends every day will be just a few of the things that I'll miss the most after we all go our separate ways next year. I don't know how I'll survive without seeing The Five (plus Lynsey), The MSFTS, The CCC, and my Nicaragua Crew every second of every day, but you girls will always be my sisters, and even though we won't all be together next year, I know we will all stay close and make time for each other. As sad as I am to be leaving, I am excited that we will all be moving forward and creating new memories. To the class of 2014, I love you more than you know! Thank you for making my years at the Study the best 5 years of my life.

Love always, Noelle

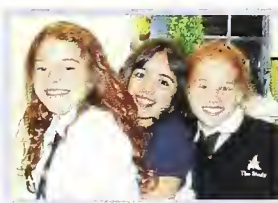

When I joined The Study family five years ago, I never even imagined that I could ever meet such a great group of girls. These last few years have been filled with some of the most unforgettable moments of my life. I don't know what I'm going to do without the class of '14 at my side everyday, you guys, my second family. We've made so many great memories to look back on, pasta in the microwave in Quebec City, the lunch lines, locker room dance parties, drama class, meowing/ringing "the bell" in class and the list goes on. Sulie, J-Mac/yoko-ono and Julius, you guys are my rocks. I don't know what I would do without my best universe friends, you've always had my back and I love you all to the moon and back. Shoutout to The Five, both of them, you guys are some of the funniest most amazing friends, thanks for making my time here so unforgettable! I'm going to miss each and every one of you, I love you all so much and congratulations to all of us for making it this far!!!

Chloe a.k.a. Claudius

I've tried writing this paragraph a hundred times over but it is so impossible to summarize the most important years of my life in just a couple of lines. Our grade has gone through thick and thin and even though most of us have spent every single day since kindergarten together, we still manage to tolerate one another. HF, LF, NAY, NK, LC, you've made these past years so memorable. And of course, my snakes, the Nicaragua girlies, LSA, HF, JL, NK and DAQ, hope we don't pebble no more. You've made these years unforgettable!

Peace out, biki out

When I began at The Study, 12 years ago, I had no idea of the journey I was about to embark on. We started as 14 little girls in Kindergarten and we are ending as one big dysfunctional family of 27 amazing women. I will always remember our hilarious lunch jokes, our locker room festivities and the constant sharing of my snacks. To my besties, I don't know what I would have done without you. You have always been there for me and have shown me what true friendship is all about. Maman, Papa and Audrey, thank you for your endless love and support. To the class of 2014, WE DID IT! I wish you all luck, success and happiness wherever you go and I truly hope our paths will cross again in the future. Love always, Clara

Julie Leduc

Although I have only been attending The Study for two years, I feel like I have known you all for ages. The first day of school, my classmates welcomed me as "the other Leduc". I have had an amazing experience at The Study due to all the opportunities I have had. Being a part of the Steel Magnolias cast was quite the experience! We had so much fun, guess it doesn't matter what order our lines came in, right Lexi? Also to my Nicaragua crew, I'd just like to say thanks for being amazing snake buddies and being part of the D.A.Q. club. The friends I have made here, I will keep forever, a shout out to The Five and my BUFF group. Claudius, Julius and JMAC, you girlies are the best!! I know can I always count on you! The book will not be forgotten. I love you all so much, let's try not to forget our inside jokes (SURPRISE!). Much love, Julie Leduc/Sulie Ledi...

I can't even believe it. A whole twelve years, huh? There's a lot of things that I can say to describe the large part of my life that The Study consumed, not all good and not all bad. I've met unforgettable people here as well as lifelong friends. Graduates, who I still keep in touch with, and some fellow lifers that I hope to never fall out of touch with. It's always been difficult to me to express my thoughts in writing, which is probably why I waited until four days before the yearbook was due to start writing it. Tis the power of the yearbook editor and my procrastination really knows no bounds. I honestly believe that the years that I have spent at The Study have formed me. They have created the me that I am today and the me that will exist in the future. People change with time, but I don't believe that I will be so different ten years from now. I will miss this place and I'm afraid of the future ahead of me, but I'm sure that I'll meet plenty of new people and I'm excited for the journey ahead.

Twelve years ago, I entered the school, scared to let go of my mother's hand. Now, twelve years later, I take my leave, scared to let go of my sisters'. Through the awkward phases and the ups and downs, we've grown up together. Laughed, smiled, cried, yelled- whatever, we've lived memorable and amazing moments I will not soon forget. To my teachers, you've taught me so much more than just lessons in a textbook. Education takes on a whole new meaning to me. To the BUFFs (JT, CK, JL), thank you. Thank you for loving me and for being there, always. To my beautiful mother and wonderful father you have given me an endless amount of support and guidance, I cannot express my gratitude. To my Turkey: meow (I love you too). And to my fellow graduates of 2014, it's been incredible. We finally made it! Cheers, my dears!! Love and all the best, Pikachu/JMAC/Jessie

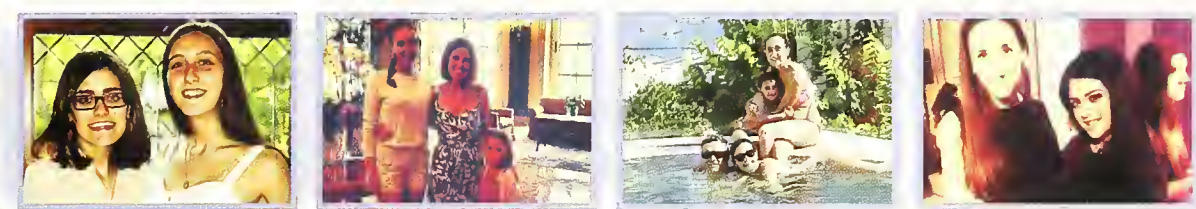

Anyone would think I'd be tired of walking up the same hill, going to class with the same girls and wearing the same uniform. Truth is, I can't imagine myself spending the past 12 amazing years any other way. I think of each girl in my grade as a sister. Noellaiss: Stay fierce! Lexie. Gorilla. Zuini: Cape Cod buddies for life! Queen Christie: Your laugh! JC: Our handshake, that is all. Sidsid, LF: Our faces during class are priceless. VH: Your baking...yum! SH: SMART board fixer! SM, Onassy: I'll miss you! IK: Hope you find your Latino. Iranus: I guess we are related...Noellis, Chloehhh, Vicky, Julie, Jess, Grasshopper: You managed to make me laugh everyday! Lilanus, Eva, Nolan: I love you girls so much! HSF: Eh... eh you! You've been the best friend anyone could ask for! Too many memories to count... bats and cows. JT: I love how you call me Madison, never Maddie. OC: You'll be famous one day! Good luck to all of you girls! I love you!

Emily

It's hard to imagine ending my 12-year journey at The Study. This place has become my second home and my friends have become my sisters. I'd like to thank my friends that I've made along the way, my family for giving me this incredible opportunity, and my teachers who patiently have given me their time and energy. SE thank you for being there for me during my highs and my lows and being my third sister. MM, my math nerd and glasses buddy, my classes and time at The Study wouldn't be the same without you always making me smile. NK, I will miss our numerous pledges to start eating healthy/work out more to reminiscing over our pre-K days. NAY, thank you for being there to vent to over texts about our math problems, Gorilla and Flounder. HSF, my debating partner and science table buddy your interesting facts from documentaries/articles will be something I miss from my days. IK, or my CB, you have been a great friend and I can always count on you to make me smile and learn something new about Greeks/Greece. To the Class of 2014, I love you all and I wish you all enormous success! <3

I can still remember when I first came to The Study two years ago, to this new and welcoming world. I can't believe how fast and easy it has been for me thanks to the support of all my classmates. I'm really going to miss those great moments such as the long and ongoing stories of my Dinkasaurus under the influence of Physics Mode. How could I forget Tortellini and her contagious laugh or the Spanglish conversations with IK? And as much as I love LA, her dog hates me. To MM, CL, SM, VH, AA, JC and OY, thanks for those incredible moments that we've had together. I also want to thank my teachers because without their help I wouldn't have been able to follow my dreams. To my family, "very thank you" for your help during my ups and downs. Thanks to all the Class of 2014 because you've really left in me a deep mark full of happiness that will follow me all my life.

Lilian Skov

Wow, we're done. It hasn't quite sunk in yet that I've finished high school. My time here at The Study has been a blessing, I have known most of my fellow classmates since kindergarten and I am lucky to graduate with them this year. When you go to a school as small as The Study, your classmates become your sisters. These girls are the ones that I cried, laughed and fought with daily. The Study sisterhood is a bond that can never be broken and I'm so honoured that I am apart of it. There are a few of my sisters that I would like to thank in particular: Coco, Shibu Inu, Commander Bobbis, Izzy, Poof Poof, Noonie and lastly my Nicaragua crew! Sneaky snakes for life! Finally, I would like to thank my amazing family without whom none of this would be possible. Anyhu Peace out, Lilian/Lily/Lil'shams/Lilz/Lil'peace/Lil.I.An/ Lily-anne/ Lilianna/Shamsy/Shamwow Master have given Lilian a high school diploma, Lilian is freeeeee!

I cannot believe that my 12 years at The Study is so quickly coming to an end. It seems like just last year I was sitting in the front row admiring the "big girls" get their lifer T-shirts and now it's my turn. The experience I have had is incomparable and I could not have been better prepared for the future challenges I will face. The Study has shaped me into who I am and who I will become. Thank you to all my teachers for feeding my craving for knowledge. You are all truly amazing. Thank you Nicaragua crew for the best trip of my life and remember that snakes are always welcome! Thank you to the basketball team for always reminding me to work hard while having crazy fun. Finally, thank you Class of 2014 for being the strongest, most loving and most beautiful group of girl I will ever have the pleasure of knowing. I love you more than anything!

"These should be the best days of our life because we are wild and young" -American Bang.
 "And we can only live today."-Netsky. Claudius: "See you in another life, brother." JM: dance parties in the bathroom all day. NK: soul mates & the cool cats club. JCM: our facetime studying really raised my marks. LF: have you started Big Brother yet? MM: MJ will be a football legend some day. NA: sorry I'm not caught up on a single tv series; degrassi JL: bring me back to your farm soon EN: badminton and ZBZ forever. HF: cheese buddies walking from the farm. IK: I'll never forget that play date in Grade 1. LC: while you get a salad, I'll take 3 burgers. LSA: birthday twins. AA: my "chocolate bars" are healthy. VK: your hands are so soft! Student council: we pushed through and I couldn't ask for a better group of girls. VB team: well deserved victory. BB team: life goes on but Bishops will be unforgettable. BUFF. Lifers unite; see you all on the other side.

I can't believe my 5 years of high school at The Study have come to an end! Over the years I have accumulated wonderful memories that I will cherish for a lifetime. I want to first thank my parents and my teachers who have believed in me and motivated me to succeed. I also want to thank the Class of 2014 for all the laughter and support they have given me. I finally want to give a special thanks to the girls (practically my sisters) that have made these last five years unforgettable: CL, MM, LA (Teagan), JC (cocobean latte), VH, ERC (Evalini Tortellini) and of course my three musketeers (Alexis Pegasus and Sushi Izzibis). We have created some crazy memories and played hilarious pranks, which I will never forget. You taught me the meaning of friendship and will always have a special place in my heart.
